

Lomita-Harbor City Religious Census To Be Taken Sunday

Ten churches of the Lomita-Harbor City area will conduct a religious census of the community next Sunday afternoon under the direction of the Lomita-Harbor City Ministers Council, it was reported here yesterday.

The area to be covered is located between Eshelman Ave. and Normandie, and between Sepulveda Blvd. and Palos Verdes Drive North.

Badges from the Chamber of Commerce will identify the census-takers, according to Rev. Walter Graham, pastor of the Western Avenue Baptist Church.

All residents of the area are being asked to provide the brief information on the family name, number of children, and the denominational affiliation or preference.

Annual 'Every Member Canvass' Under Way at St. Andrew's Here

The Every Member canvass is in full swing at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave.

In November of each year, members of the Protestant Episcopal Church throughout America renew their pledges of financial support for their church.

At St. Andrew's Parish, Father Hugh R. Percy, rector, and R. S. Hollister, chairman of stewardship, started the local Every Member canvass Sunday. Father Percy has reiterated the truth that "membership in Christ's church anywhere involves giving of ourselves and our goods."

These actions are necessary for the health of our souls as well as for the continuance of the church, he says.

FATHER PERCY also described the innovations in the Every Member Canvass in his church this year. One of these is observance of "Loyalty Sunday." With other canvass literature, individual pledge cards have been mailed or given to all parishioners of St. Andrew's. As a gesture of their love and loyalty for their church, the people are invited to bring their pledge cards to the church on Nov. 8 and make "Loyalty Sunday" on that day a significant fact.

This plan will also have the effect of reducing the number of canvass calls. People who forget or neglect to have their pledges in on "Loyalty Sunday" will receive a call on "Canvass Sunday," Nov. 15.

The Other Innovation This Year is Use of Duplex Envelopes for Pledging

One side is for "Maintenance of St. Andrew's," the other side for "Expansion." Father Percy has

WSC Guild To Review Three Books

The Women's Christian Service Guild of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection will hold its November meeting next Tuesday, Nov. 10, at 8 p.m.

The program for the evening will include three book reports, all timely and of interest to Christian women everywhere. A Bible study and the highlights of the Fall Workshop Convention will also be given. Special music will be offered by Eve T. Reed. Following the program a coffee period is held for everyone to become acquainted.

The books to be reviewed include "The Red Dragon over China" by Harold H. Martinson. This book will be reviewed by Mrs. Helen Swanson and reveals the startling facts about the Communist movement in China and how it has affected the church in China.

The second book is "Now I Can Tell," which also tells of Communism and will be given by Mrs. Ellen Heck.

The third book will be "The Stewardess," by Eleanor Bockelman and is to be given by Mrs. June Olney. This book tells of the stewardess in relation to Christ and His Church. It gives suggestions for a more satisfactory stewardship of talents and treasures.

The Women's Christian Service Guild feel this is an excellent opportunity to learn about the interesting and informative books which are written in a Christian vein and help to give readers enthusiasm in the world-wide expansion of Christianity.

"The churches of the area are attempting to gear their programs to our fast-changing community," Rev. Graham said. "The taking of a census will give a clear picture of the religious complexion of our community," he added.

Results of the census will be made public in the near future, the pastor said.

"Since our area is too densely populated to be covered in one afternoon, other areas will be covered on another Sunday afternoon in the near future," Rev. Graham said.
